„... fuzzy and furious early-70s riff-rawk, propelled by mucho-macho cowbell and Marton Szekely's full throated, grungy roar. The pride of Budapest, surely.“

Le Deblocnot (FR) - 09/12/2015

„Tu fourgues le tout dans un tonneau en vieux chêne, puis tu aromatises de Jack, ou de Jim Beam, tu secoues énergiquement. Après avoir bien laissé mariner un mois, tu sers le précieux breuvage glacé. Cul-sec ! Sköll ! Yec'hed mat ! Salute ! Rock'n'Roooooll ! Pas d'la pisse d'âne, ça !“

Headbanger Reviews - 30/10/2015

„All in all, Ozone Mama have done a solid job in recreating a classic feel that works very well despite that genre for the most part dying off in recent decades, but this band is not letting go and they know how to hold onto this genre and how to recreate very, very nicely.”

„One thing is for sure, I thoroughly enjoyed the album from first track to last. Now I just have to hope for Ozone Mama to make it out to California. To hear their music is incredible, but their live performances have held such high regard that I just can't wait to see them.”

Music Junkie Press - 23/07/2014

„...they have given a fresh new facelift to the classic rock of the 60's and 70's. They bring out a heavier vibe and an absolutely addictive sound. I can't get enough of them.”

The Dedicated Rocker Society- 29/01/2014

„Ozone Mama have their own sound, but there's an energy there that I experienced that was similar to being a kid and hearing Zep, Hendrix, Sabbath and all the great bands for the first time. Driving, intense and unrelenting.... 'Freedom' is damn good! Ozone Mama, an outstanding band indeed.”

Classic Rock Magazine - 19/06/2013

„How many decent Hungarian rock bands can you name? Or any Hungarian rock bands, for that matter? Well, here's one you might be unfamiliar with. This Budapest-based four-piece released their debut album The Starship Has Landed and have plans to take this sort of foot-to-the-floor, 70s-influenced rock further in 2013.”

Ozone Mama - I Really Care featured on the bonus CD Unleashed Vol. II. of Classic Rock Magazine's special edition June 2013.

RockAndPop (CZ) - 03/11/2012

„Ozone Mama v roce 2012 vyhráli prestižní maďarskou cenu Fonogram v kategorii nováček roku. Nespoutaní rock'n'rolloví výtržníci, co vás vezmou na výlet časem a prostorem do doby, kdy láska byla volná, sny pestrobarevné a hrudě chlupaté až do vesmírných dálav budoucnosti. A mají zatraceně divokou bubenici!”

Stoner And More Blog (FR) - jeanmid - 03/08/2011

„Je souhaitais vous présenter ce soir ce groupe hongrois : Ozone Mama (en hommage aux Black Crowes ?) .

Ce quatuor basé à Budapest et actif depuis 2005 a apparemment pas mal galéré avant de pouvoir trouver les ressources financières nécessaires afin de produire et de réaliser de manière indépendante sa première galette " The Starship Has Landed " .

La musique d'Ozone Mama est fortement empreinte d'un mélange Heavy Blues Rock / Stoner aux sonorités très vintage . Pour autant la production a su mettre en avant les qualités intrinsèques du groupe : la belle voix plein de chaleur et de puissance , un six- cordiste autant adroit à la rythmique que dans les soli et enfin une section basse / batterie en béton !

Onze titres de haute volée que vous pouvez écouter en intégralité sur leur site officiel ICI Vivement conseillé !”
